

Git Help

git [command] --help

To browse on the web

Configuring Git

git config --global user.name [username]

Use double-quotes for multi-word username git config --global user.email [email]

git config --global core.editor "code --wait"

git config --global core.autocrlf [option]

# Set option to true for windows and input for mac

Initializing Git

git init

Staging files

git add file1.js file2.js

Stages multiple files git add .

Stages the current directory and all its content

Viewing status

git status

Full status

Viewing staged files

git ls-files

Shows all files currently being staged

Committing staged files

git commit -m "message"

Commits with a one-line message

Removing files

git rm file1.js

Removes from working directory and staging area git rm --cached file1.js

Removes from staging area only

Working with Branches

git branch

Lists all branches

git branch [branch_name]

Creates a branch with the given branch name git branch -d [branch_name]

Deletes the given branch name git checkout [branch_name]

Selects the given branch name

Merging branches

git merge [branch_name]

Merges current branch with given branch

Linking local Git repository with GitHub git remote add origin [repo URL]

Pushing branch to GitHub

git push origin [branch name]